AMUSEMENTS

Blue-blooded Spaniards, the the Montezumas, bandits, soldiers of Mexico, a Yankee newspaper correspondent, maniacs and proud women faced the footlights at the Grand theatre last evening for the edification of a large audience. The play was "The Royal Slave," who proved to be the direct descendant of the line of Montezuma, and around him swung all the exciting incidents of the melodrama. Judging from the applause that greeted it from citement—duels, attempted murders, intrigues of all kinds, captures, escapes, robber caves and love-making. The royal Indian never fails to turn up at the right time and on the right spot, and in this way he conquers the hearts of the audience. The company on the whole is a good one; the leading parts are in capable hands and there is little fault to be found with the presentation.

F. Walker block, Sait Lake City, Utah. Any stock upon which said assessment shall, remain unpaid on the 10th day of December, 1907, will be delinquent and advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will be sold on the 3d day of Jahuary, 1908, at 3 o'clock p. m. of said day, to pay the said delinquent assessment thereon, to gether with the costs of advertising and expenses of sale.

Tault to be found with the presentation.

Elton Deu Pree takes the part of Aguila, the Indian. It would be difficult to imagine how the part could be presented better. Raymond J. Bindon taken sented better. Raymond J. Binder takes stock deposited with the First National the part of the Yankee and he is especially good, lively, wide-awake and always Johnny-on-the-spot as a Yankee bank. F. R. DAVIS. Secretary. should be. Mr. Binder was suffering from a severe cold so that his singing specialties were not overwhelming successes, but otherwise he was all right. resses, but otherwise he was all right.

Flo Young as the Spanish senorita made a hit, with the galleries especial ly, and Erville Anderson carried the part of the robber chief acceptably.

Mary Ayer was not always clear in her moration. Payable on the capital stock of the corporation. Payable on the form the capital stock of the corporation. Payable on the capital stock of the corporation. Payable on the form the capital stock of the corporation. Payable on the capital stock of the corporation. Mary Ayer was not always clear in her enunciation and did not display the fire that the part of the Countess Inez would seem to demand, but she displayed some stunning gowns and these made up for some of the other deficiencies. The play runs four nights and a Wednesday matinee.

"In Old Kentucky" opens an engagement at the theatre this evening that will run through Wednesday evening. An entire new bill will be given at the Orpheum tonight.

"An Oath of Vengeance," which opened on Saturday at the Lyric, was played with much satisfaction to a big audience last evening. The play will be given all week.
